Jarmo Koski

Born 1951

First professional engagement in Ahaa Theater 1976.

I have worked in children's theaters, touring theaters, puppet theaters, dubbing, radio, films, commercials, on tv and internet.

During the years I have been asked to give my voice to Winnie the Pooh and Tinky Winky as well as Captain Haddock - amongst hundreds of other characters.

In domestic films I have had some roles, latest in 2020 in "The Renovation".

Most well known of my works is "Seppo Taalasmaa" - one of the main characters in Finnish daily drama series "Secret lives" from the beginning in 1998 to 2013. After that occasionally played the character even recently.

Roles in theater have varied from fairytale characters to Wilfred Bond in "Quartet". I have been acting in various different places in Finland and Sweden: From gymnastic halls to restaurants and fancy theaters. Audiences from children to teenagers and seniors.

Most recent works in theater 2023: Several roles (like Clousseau and the mother of Louis XIV) in the revue "Qui?".
